ATTACHMENT 2 – MARKING SYSTEM

Marking System for DWC Ballroom Style and Latin Style Ballroom Competition (100 marks)

Choreography (25 marks): should include some of the following elements:

- A degree of difficulty and complexity, which will be taken into consideration.
- Choreography must be age appropriate and suit the dancers' ability.
- Jumps, turns and kicks may not dominate.
- The choreography should highlight the dancers' ability to vary the dynamic quality within the movement.
- The choreography should demonstrate notable characteristics and stylistic differences of the various genres.

Technique (25 marks): should include the following elements:

- the same technical ballroom qualities should be evident and assessed.
- Lifts must be performed with dexterity both on the way up and on the way down.
- If dancing with a partner normal hold and body contact should define the ballroom style.
- A good frame must be maintained throughout.
- Posture, balance, control, straight knees and ankle/insteps, pointed toes
- Flexible footwork in both basic steps and technical elements such as: kicks and jumps must be precise and well executed.
- Arm and leg movements should be presented with extensions showing elegant long lines, whether straight or curved.
- spatial awareness and floor management must be considered.

Musicality (25 marks):

- Rhythmical interpretation should demonstrate a sense of musicality within the dance.
- Variation in rhythm that shows use of dynamic qualities and timing also accentuates musicality.

Artistry (25 marks) – refers to

- The interpretation and concept of the piece.
- The overall impression should highlight the dancers' ability to perform the routine with ease, irrespective of fast explosive and elastic movements.
- A strong sense of characterisation must be apparent, particularly in the Latin Show dance.

DWC has the authority to award a space at the finals to a qualifier participant if they feel that the dancer would benefit from attending the finals.
